

Charles A. Roth, M.D.

Orthopaedics

Co-Medical Director of the Andrews Institute

Clinical Specialties:

- Knee and shoulder surgery
- Knee ligament reconstruction
- Total and partial knee replacement
- Cartilage resurfacing
- Shoulder arthroscopy
- Repair ligaments
- Labrum
- Rotator cuff

Education:

- Medical School: University of Texas Medical School
- Internship: Charity Hospital, New Orleans
- Residency: LSU Affiliated Hospitals- Orthopaedic Surgery
- Shoulder replacement and fracture repair

Research Specialties:

- Cartilage Resurfacing- knee
- Anticoagulation after knee replacement with factor 5 inhibitors

Current Research:

- Cartilage Autograft Implantation (CAIS) for knee cartilage deficits

Current Academic Appointments:

- Clinical Assistant Professor- Florida State University Medical School
- Clinical Assistant Professor – USA Medical Center Physician Assistant Program

Current Society Memberships:

- Arthroscopy Association of North America
- Florida Orthopaedics Society
- Southern Medical Association
- Southern Orthopaedics Association

Community Relationships:

- Orthopaedic Consultant Ballet Pensacola

Office Location

Suite 204
Andrews Institute
Gulf Breeze, FL

(850) 916-8700
TheAndrewsInstitute.com